Launching of website by Naxalites

3413. SHRI SANJAY RAUT: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the naxalites have now become 'hi-tech' by launching their own website and have issued serious threats from website to the State and Central Government;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(C) how his Ministry propose to effectively face this situation?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI SHRIPRAKASH JAISWAL): (a) and (b) Certain websites with pro-maoist/naxalite contents are found to be hosted on Internet. These website are largely hosted outside India.

(c) Besides intercepting any information transmitted through any computer resource in relation to interests of the sovereignty or integrity of India, security of the State, Public order etc., the Central Government can also issue instructions to Internet Service Providers for blocking of such websites in India.

Rush of Sri Lankans in India

†3414. MS. SUSHILATIRIYA:
SHRI MOTILAL VORA:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware of the fact that many persons are arriving in India in view of the heavy pressure from Army in Sri Lanka;

(b) if so, the number of Sri Lankan already arrived in India;

(c) whether there is any apprehension of law and order problem in the country owing to their entry in India;

(d) if so, the details thereof; and

(e) the details of the steps proposed to be taken by Government to send them back to Sri Lanka and by when?

†Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI SHRIPRAKASH JAISWAL): (a) and (b) Due to ethnic violence and disturbed conditions in Sri Lanka, about 2,79,354 Sri Lankan refugees have entered India since July 1983.

(c) and (d) As reported by the State Government of Tamil Nadu, so far there is no law and order problem because of their arrival.

(e) Government of India's approach is to discourage their movement, but if any refugees do come, they are granted relief on humanitarian grounds with the ultimate object of repatriating them back to Sri Lanka and relief is provided to them pending such repatriation.

In normal course of time, whenever the Sri Lankan refugees give their willingness to return to Sri Lanka on their own, they are allowed to do so.
